2 - Winter NiGHTS (Hey Dreamer):
On a cold winter night
You warmed my heart as we held tight
The dreams will come in time
Just as the seasons change, our fears will be left behind
Hey dreamer
Hold on just a little more
The sun's not far from the horizon and this is the day that we have long been waiting for Hey
Hey dreamer
(Remix of Christmas NiGHTS - Winter Sleep
original song composed by Tomoko Sasaki, Naofumi Hataya, Fumie Kumatani Remix arranged and performed by Level 99)

3 - Winter NiGHTS (Hey Dreamer, Can't Dance Sleeping mix):

4 - The Bunny Man's Christmas:
It's that time of year.
In the waking it's the same thing but I wanna know how the celebrate it over here in Nightopia. Well, let's see.
Christmas Party courtesy of the bunny.
So who's invited? Everybody
From Gulpo to Gilwing to those things in JoD.
You know, the things that replaced the Egg Clock.
(Awakers?) Yeah then. (But won't they wake us up?)
...good point, forget them. No offence intended.
I don't wanna start this party and have it ended.
They can celebrate together wherever they are.
Though I'm curious to know what would happen
if one met the other, but I digress.
DiGi go and get dressed.
It's about time to welcome our guests.
Ah-ha! They're here.
Welcome to the most wonderful time of the year.
Jackle's straight to the vodka and coke.
Drunk in 4 seconds, guarantee, no joke.
Reala's followed, sippin' the whisky.
Bedroom eyes, he's getting a bit frisky.
With Bomamba. But she ain't having it.
She tore the mistletoe down and slapped him with it.
Grania is in at the grave for the buffet
Annoyed that Gulpo won't move out of the way.
Oh bloody hell I don't believe this.
Now they're fighting over who is the better fish.
Like we care, now shove sideways.
The Pians are starving, nobody's fed them in days.
Clawz is drunk, roughing up furballs.
Gilwing's drunk, flying in circles.
Wzeman's crying face paints and might cry
heh...I know how you feel big guy.

Put some music on, let's get them dancing
Puffy and Donbalon have jumped in.
They've bounced off each other
and have jumped out.
And now they're just bouncing
all over the damn house.
Helen is boring.
Will's kicking his football, breaking the door and
Chamelan is cheating at a game of cards.
Owl is offering advice though no one asked.
Cerberus is shredding the tree.
Queen Bella is shaking a time with the beat.
At least she's having fun, I guess.
Though did she really need to cover the house with these webs?
NiGHTS is trying to socialize with Claris.
And now Elliot is feeling pissed.
Selph didn't turn up because apparently he don't exist.
Oh well, never mind. Merry Christmas.
(Lyrics and original song by DiGi Valentine.
Mixing and backing based on original song by Level 99)
